	Singapore does not impose capital gains tax but gains made from the disposal of shares may be subject to income tax if the shares are held for trading purposes.
How will I be taxed on shareholder distributions?	In Rolls-Royce, if a decision is taken to make shareholder distributions, these are currently paid in the form of 'C Shares'. You will only be eligible to receive C Shares on Your Shares: Gifted once they unlock. After that, you will receive C Shares on your unlocked shares, whenever we pay them, until you choose to sell your shares. Whilst you hold your unlocked shares in your Equiniti share account, your C Shares will be redeemed for cash which will automatically be reinvested into ordinary shares.
	The distribution of C Shares is taxed in the same way as a dividend. Singapore does not impose a separate dividends tax. Foreign-sourced income (including foreign-sourced dividends) received by a Singapore resident individual in Singapore is exempt from tax (provided such income is not received through a partnership in Singapore).
	Issue of C Shares: no income tax or social security.
	Redemption of C Shares: no income tax or social security.
	Reinvestment into ordinary shares: no income tax or social security,
	Sale of reinvested ordinary shares : Singapore does not impose capital gains tax but gains made from the disposal of shares may be subject to income tax if the shares are held for trading purposes. No social security.
Do I have to report any income in relation to the plan to my local tax authority?	Yes There is no specific filing in relation to share related incentives. Report name : Annual Tax Return to the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore (IRAS) (Form B1 and appendices). Most taxpayers file their tax return online through IRAS's e-services portal. A paper Form B1 will only be sent to individual taxpayers who
